Michael Hershberger

(Hiya!)

Dear Mike,

I've known you for 5 years, but I feel that I've only begun to know you. These past few weeks have been just great! and I hope they can be a long time to come. If it wasn't for ya crazy smile every morning I would never have made it through the year! (I really dig those dimples.) I'll never forget "Georgy Girl" our first real date and I have to double with my sister & then there was the time at the beach party and climbing through windows to change my "damp" clothes - then our trips to the "Zoo" - I've really enjoyed all these times with you and I really hope they continue - There of course don't forget your "group" with John + I as the "outcasts" (I'd still like to know what Ruth said) Well Best of Luck in the future and may all your dreams come true (mine too!) I haven't known you since the diaper stage but from Y.P. to Graduation will just have to do I, like Arlene, hope that our friendship lasts forever. Keep dancing + smiling + old U.S. will stay alive. Love always

Lois

P.S. I don't see how Ruth did it. It took me 45 min. to write just this little bit!

Dear Mike,

I've known you all my life, but what can one say that could express all that we've gone through together. You've made my eighteen years, years that will I cherish always.

Ours, I feel, is a friendship that will last and last. Years from now we will still be friendly. Who knows - maybe I'll help deliver some of your wife's children.

Although we've had our quarrels and arguments, and maybe we don't see eye to eye all the time, but Mike I can honestly say that you are one of the nicest, sweetest, greatest guys I know.

From diapers to graduation, let's keep that friendship alive forever.

Love always & forever,

Arlene

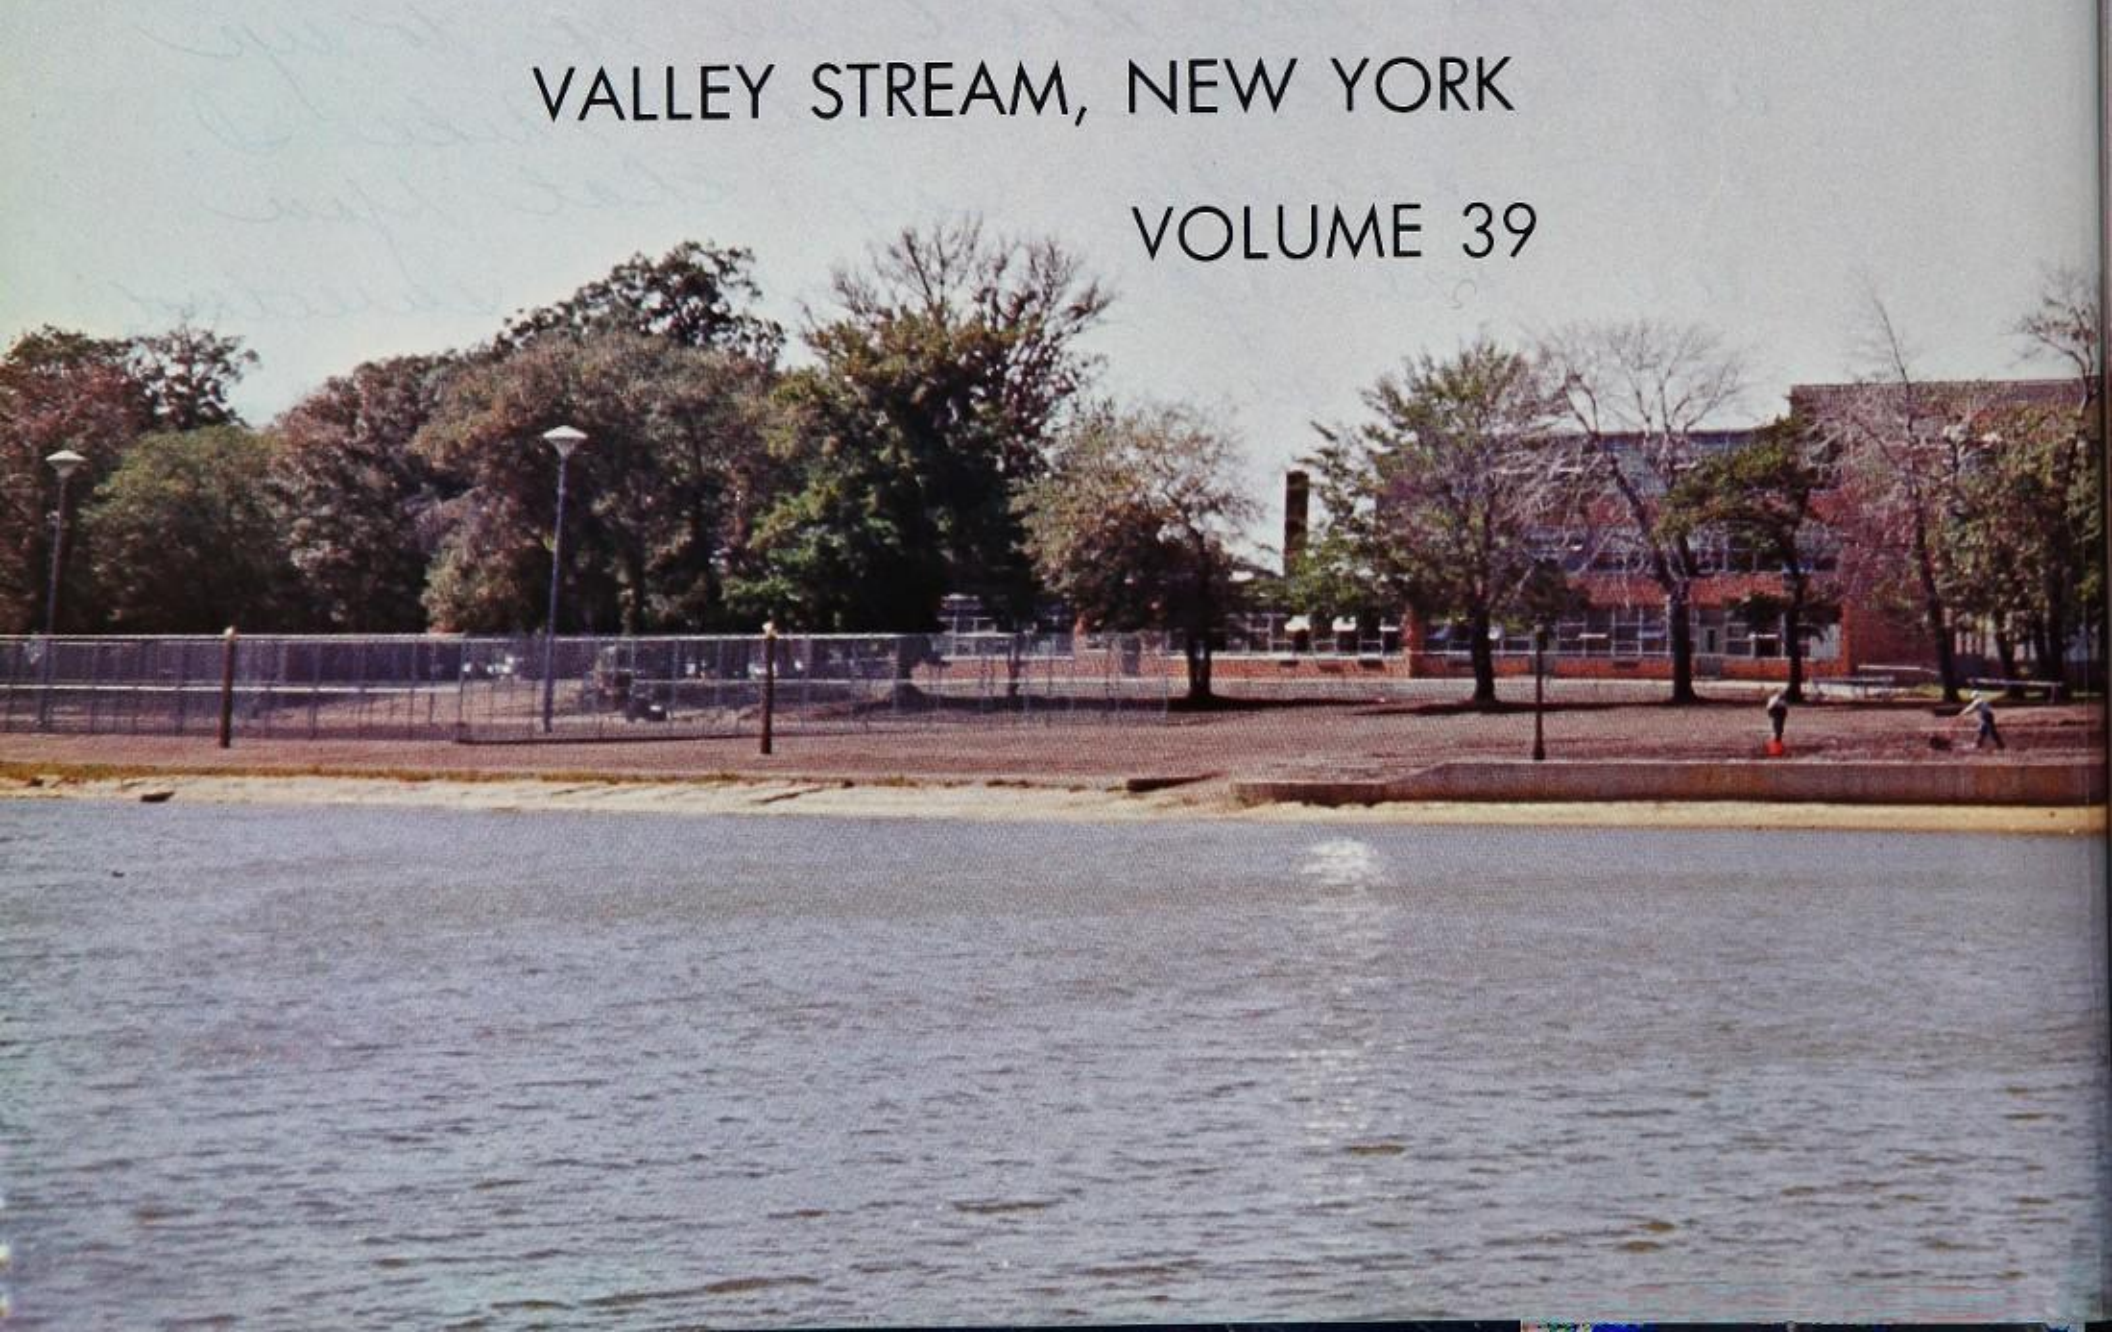
VOLUME 39



THE TIMES, THEY ARE A-CHANGING . . .

ONLY ONE THING IN LIFE IS CONSTANT, AND THAT IS CHANGE. IN THE THREE YEARS THAT WE HAVE SPENT HERE, WE HAVE SEEN THE SWIFT FLUX OF WORLD EVENTS, THE PHYSICAL CHANGES IN OURSELVES AND OUR SURROUNDINGS, THE GRADUAL CHANGES IN PERSONALITY AND OUTLOOK THAT SIGNIFY THE ADVENT OF MATURITY. NEVER AGAIN WILL WE BE THE PEOPLE WE HAVE BEEN; AHEAD IS ONLY THE PROSPECT OF BECOMING. AS THE TREE THROUGH THE SEASONS GROWS AND CHANGES, NEVER STATIC, SO DO WE STRIVE CONSTANTLY FOR NEW FORMS THAT WE WILL IN TIME LEAVE. IN A CHANGING WORLD, WE CHANGE AND MOVE ON.

Mike,
Hope you can find where I wrote. I'll hang on a limb. I went out on a limb to write to you. (in red.)
Love always!
May God bless you and keep you through all your years of life to come.
Carol
(your daughter and Mr. Molay sister!)

Mike, (the tallest guy I know)
Math will never be the same without you in front of me.
After all who else sits in their desk so tall so a certain girl (me) can do all my homework behind you?
Good luck in career years
Love,
Carol Mortimer
(I don't know that)

Mike,
The greatest biology student I never had! Best of luck!
Ann Tolen

Dear Mike,
Good Luck and Lots of happiness in your future years.
Love,
Pat

MR. DEMITA

Mr. Frank DeMita epitomizes involvement and interest. From Student Council to special assemblies to classroom, Mr. DeMita runs the gamut of activity. Of course, the very magnitude and diversity of his interests make him a special person, but it is his personal involvement in the student body, his unwavering dedication to Central that makes his presence indispensable. He serves not one group or one class, but, uniquely, the entire school.

To Mr. DeMita—somebody to everybody—we dedicate CADET 1967.

Andrew Berner

VALEDICTORIAN

If one were to ask any member of the District Orchestra about Andrew Berner, undoubtedly the reply would be full of enthusiasm about Andy's piano playing. This article, however, is not about Andy Berner, pianist; it is about Andy Berner, valedictorian. This Julliard student has the honor of attaining the highest scholastic average of the class of 1967.

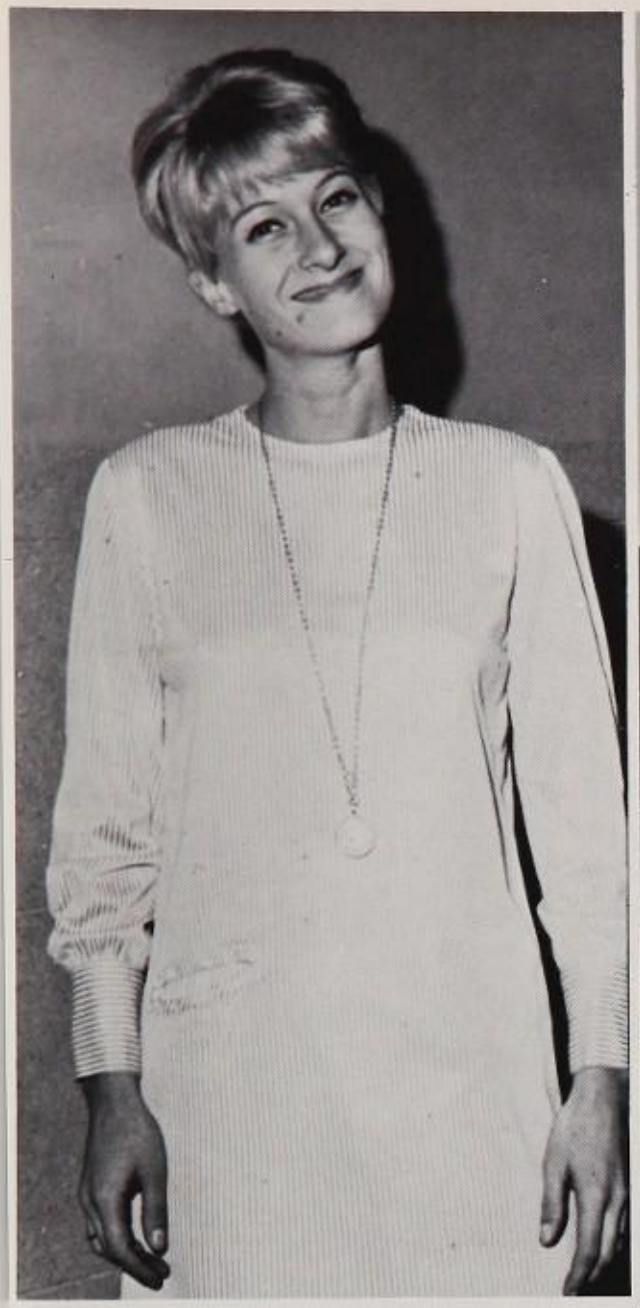
Excelling in the two fields of music and scholarship would be more than enough for any other person, but Andy's talents do not stop there. He is the editor-in-chief of CADET, a member of National Honor Society, Tempo, and captain of Mathletes, ranking fourth in all Nassau County. In the District Festival Concert he played Beethoven's Piano Concerto in C Major, a fifteen minute "tour de force".

SALUTATORIAN

Versatility is the key to our salutatorian, Debbie Zubow. A random sampling of a few of her many titles: Girl Scout and 4-H Leader, Camp Art Instructor, Swimming Instructor, illustrates her wide range of abilities. She also is a member of National Honor Society, French Honor Society, and Astra. When this editor-in-chief of CADET is not to be found in the CADET room, chances are that she is down in the auditorium practicing the organ. Debbie was one of the highest ranking French students on Long Island in the American Association of Teachers of French contest, and was awarded a prize by that organization. Her facility in language study has led Debbie to consider this field as her tentative major at Swarthmore College next year, where she will continue her education.

Deborah Zubow

ADVISORS



Miss Jacobson

Mr. Leverich

For the past three years, Miss Jacobson and Mr. Leverich have been more than mere advisors to the Class of '67. Through all our bouts with bankruptcy, when even the most loyal allies were ready to wring our necks in despair, they remained steadfast and true, tolerant of our financial foibles and tireless in their friendly support of all our endeavors. Now that we have emerged from the degrading depths of penury, we can thankfully heave a sigh of relief in the direction of our dynamic duo, Miss Jacobson and Mr. Leverich.

COUNSELORS

During our Central years, our guides along the pitfall-strewn paths to college and careers were Miss Dodson and Mr. Hasman, our counselors, programmers, confidantes, and friends. When difficult choices, insuperable dilemmas, or just the crushing weight of school routine was suddenly too much to handle alone, our guidance counselors were always there to provide the assurance that our problems weren't really all that serious, or, if they were, to tell us not to worry anyway. Through driver ed tirades and months of indifference, program complaints and unappreciated advice, they retained the beaming smiles and perpetual good humor that always brought us back, even if it was just to see a friendly face. If only for the fact that they were there when we needed them, we cannot thank them enough.

Mr. Hasman

Miss Dodson

SENIOR COUNCIL

Student Evaluation Committee:
Row 2: D. Behar, P. Conley, B. Cashden

Since entering Central, the Council of the Class of '67 has operated with a steadily ascending degree of success. From the depths of fiscal nightmare we have come through the fruit cake fiasco, magazines, nuts, Easter eggs and the candy stand to partial solvency. We provided our predecessors with a luxurious prom; in our one-act plays we have moved from bald failure to valiant success. Thanks to our faithful advisors, Miss Jacobson and Mr. Leverich, and this year's officers, Debbie Haber, Peter Conley, Gail Cronin, and Lois Kania, we may even graduate out of the red.

Student Council Officers: L. Kania, Treas.; D. Haber, Pres.; P. Conley, V.P.; G. Cronin, Sec.

Mike
Our roads part here, but I'll always remember you, Central, and all the good times we've had - all the best Peter C.

Row 1: S. Kullmann, Miss L. Jacobson, L. Kania, D. Haber, P. Conley, G. Cronin, Mr. W. Leverich, S. Rosenbaum
Row 2: J. Cohen, L. Levitt, H. Jayson, J. Sahagian, C. O'Connor, S. Lacoy, T. Anastasio, S. Dietz, T. Graben, D. Epstein, B. McGrath, C. Shemin, T. Ganiaris
Row 3: C. Berger, D. Propfe, J. Wishingrad, L. Bailey, C. Kolk, L. Schwartz, S. Thompson, J. Liff, G. Malinak, B. Katz, B. Green

MR. AND MISS CENTRAL

Once again Central honors its yearly ritual of electing a senior girl and boy to represent "Mr. and Miss Central." By popular demand, Terry Anastasio and Mike Ruvolo have been chosen by the Class of '67 for this honor.

Dear Mike,
To the bestest lunch-mate a girl ever had! Thanks for all the favors - especially the trip to Carle Place! It has been great knowing such a great guy and my days at Central have happy memories because of you
Don't ever forget LATINA
JIVE!!
Best of luck always and may your life be filled with happiness!
Love,
Mary

Dear Mike,
You are one of the greatest boys
I have ever met.
Best of luck always
You deserve it
I'll never forget
you Love,
Nancy

DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

DR. WALTER D. STILLE, District Principal

Central High District #1 is being run by a capable and youthful man. Dr. Walter D. Stille, replete with a most imposing physique and a slight southern drawl, is a highly unusual man. From Louisiana to Chicago to New Jersey to Valley Stream, Dr. Stille's movements have been motivated by one major premise: he has wanted to be where there was the biggest job to be done, and here he is. He leaves one with the impression that the most meaningful thing a school system can do is to graduate young people equipped to live individual lives in today's conformist world.

Seated: E. McAULIFFE; DR. STILLE; H. HOLDER, President. Standing: D. VIGLIOTTI; JUDGE LOEW, District Attorney; G. LEVINE; P. HELLMERS, Business Administrator; DR. BELL; S. ROMASH; C. REPP, District Clerk; E. MacLEAN; L. TAUB; W. RUDOLPH; A. BUCHSBAUM

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

EDWARD J. KURFESS, Principal

The man behind it all, Mr. Kurfess, has, in his own words, "been around a long time", from the days when he chaperoned those fabled Washington trips and coached football to his present position as our principal. As he has grown along with Central and has helped it to grow, he has become aware of all aspects of life at Central, and has been its guiding force—the man whose judgment keeps Central running smoothly and efficiently, perhaps the most demanding job of all.

H. BERTRAM KELLER

Mr. Keller, our Assistant Principal, will be remembered for his warmth and sympathy in his dealings with students. As Talent Troupe founder and sponsor, P. A. announcer, organist, and Sunday school teacher, Mr. Keller will leave personal memories with the privileged few who worked with him during their high school years.

ALFRED NEAMAN

Official duties ranging from helping Mr. Keller in the attendance office to maintaining school discipline fall under the jurisdiction of Administrative Assistant, Mr. Neaman. His ready smile and sympathetic ear have earned him the respect and affection of many students in his years at Central.

ANNE BRAASCH

Never fear! The enigmatic smile on the face of the woman in the back of the room does not signal a raid by the Thought Police. Miss Braasch, Central's Assistant Principal in Instruction, is there only to discover and test new methods of teaching and course changes. Relax.

Testing, placement, and counseling are some of the essential services performed by our Guidance Department. Miss Allen and her associates diligently assist every student in choosing his program, career, or school. With almost two thousand students, the job becomes extremely complex, and yet, by their patience and interest, the counselors afford each student the opportunity of making full use of the aids and facilities of the Guidance Department.

Whenever an accident or emergency occurs, Mrs. Miller, our school nurse, is nearby with a remedy on hand, be it band-aid or needle and thread. At the close of her third year of service, CADET offers her warm congratulations.

ENGLISH

EUNICE STEARN; Chairman

Central's English Department faces the difficult task of trying to unlock for students the potential richness and personal relevance of literary works, while finding itself also forced to concentrate on fundamental skills ranging from spelling to research techniques. Nevertheless, with the inspired guidance of Mrs. Stearn, the department manages to instill in many students an appreciation of past and contemporary literature. Interested pupils may also elect courses in public speaking and dramatics.

STUDIES

DAISY MAE GRIFFITH, Chairman

Central's Social Studies Department, chaired by Miss Griffith, tries to prepare students for knowledgeable citizenship by enabling them to achieve some degree of insight into the behavior of groups of men, past and present, political, economic, and social. Toward this end courses are offered in world history, American history, government, and economics. Advanced placement American history is available for students of greater capability wishing to obtain college credit.

MATHEMATICS

H. DOROTHY CAUGHRAN, Chairman

The discipline of mathematics is of enormous significance amid the complexity of our society. Central's Mathematics Department meets the needs thus placed upon it by providing a multitude of courses covering a wide variety of areas at many levels. From elementary algebra to calculus, Miss Caughran and her colleagues fully prepare students to take their mathematical places in the outside world.

SCIENCE

The complex, often mystifying forces, functions, and substances of the physical world are the subjects of the Science Department. Under the leadership of Mr. Barry Spector, courses in biology, chemistry and physics are offered on various levels and with ever-changing curricula to match the advances of modern science. Despite the hardships imposed upon faint-hearted or less than-nimble students and teachers unaccustomed to mass mayhem, laboratory periods attest to the belief that scientific principles are best learned first hand.

M. JEAN MUNRO, Chairman

Central's Language Department is the most varied one of all the schools in the district. Students are offered courses in five modern languages—French, German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish—in addition to the two years of Latin taught by Miss Munro, the chairman. Emphasis is placed on the development of an understanding and appreciation of the history and customs of other peoples as well as mastery of written and spoken language. Further enrichment for interested students is offered in language clubs and honor societies.

BUSINESS

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Mr. Dare's Business Education Department provides an opportunity for students to prepare themselves for business careers. Practical math, secretarial skills, bookkeeping, salesmanship, and business law courses are taught, and training is given in office situations. In conjunction with courses, students may be required to hold outside jobs for further experience.

The boys' and girls' Physical Education Departments, under the direction of Mr. Edward Graham, pursue the Greek ideal of a sound body through the development of varied athletic skills, general fitness and endurance, and some knowledge of rules and strategy. Although at graduation few students find themselves resembling either Odysseus or Helen of Troy, gym periods do provide a much-needed emotional outlet through physical activity.

ART

A varied curriculum and the leadership of Mr. Cimador combine to make the Art Department a valuable asset both to the students and to the school. The department takes on jobs from painting scenery for school plays to designing posters. Mr. Furey

HEALTH

The health course, taken according to state law by all seniors, attempts to compress the entire science of human behavior, from basic psychology to personal hygiene, into one semester of intensive study. Emphasis is placed on how the subject matter can affect the lives of the students by making them more aware of the principles underlying their behavior. The chairman, Mr. D'Elia, is a leader in the state health education field.

CADET

The general chaos which pervades the third floor daily can be attributed to none other than the gay bunch in, or occasionally out of, the CADET room. If you can cut eighth period, and have guts and a strong stomach, come within a few feet of the door some day, and above the roar you may be able to piece together several coherent words . . .

"Who is that girl in the second row?"
"I'm on threesees."
"You're fired!"
"Who's Nunzio Colombo?"

Somehow, between Tip-it, Christmas Festivities and interior decoration, jacks, handball, and bird-watching, something must get done. For each year, Cadet Night heralds the arrival of the new masterpiece, record of friends, faces, and dirty fingerprints. Despite gross antics, disagreements, and general confusion, with the help of Mr. Feigenbaum's solemn guidance, the despairing perseverance of co-editors Andy Berner and Debbie Zubow, the devout prayers of the respective staffs, and a small measure of divine intervention, the year invariably ends with each senior safely in possession of the usual magnum opus. Except maybe this year.

In a little hole on the third floor, tucked away beneath the clouds, lives a peculiar subspecies of Centralite known as the Crier Staff. From this degenerate den of who-knows-what emanates semi-periodically our school newspaper, the Crier, which, while hardly the New York Times, consistently prints "all the news that's fit to print" as well as a good deal that's not.

Ingenious new features, including celebrity interviews and "No Penny Tax, No Nothings" opinion polls, daringly controversial editorials, and especially the magnificent P.A. advertising campaign, have carved for Crier a unique and bloody niche in the hearts of all of Central's students.

ASTRA

Astra means many things. Namely, English Honor Society and the literary magazine. These two sentences, which include, among other things, a cliché and a half-sentence, supposedly are not typical of Astra writing. Membership is based on scholarship in English and creative writing ability. The primary activity of members, aside from listening to Dame Edith Sitwell and arguing with Mr. Monk about the poetic ability of Bob Dylan, is the heroic attempt to publish a magazine for a change.

MARCHING BAND

During the football season, the Streamer Squad, Twirler Squad, and Marching Band practice daily for their tice daily for their half-time football shows, under Mr. Boberg's direction. As the band marches down the field, the spectators respond enthusiastically to the precision formations and lively music. In the spring they participate in holiday parades. The marchers have reason to be proud of a season of hard work and musical accomplishment.

Central High School's Streamers are a close-knit group of girls who can be found practicing every day during the football season in preparation for their half-time shows at the home games. These girls are chosen at the end of their sophomore year by Mr. Fare, Mr. Boberg, and the Streamer Captains, after an intensive audition. Besides their half-time performances, the Streamers accompany the band and the Twirlers during the Memorial Day and Sunday School Parades in the spring.

TWIRLERS

The Twirling Corps under the leadership of Gloria Clark, Drum Majorette; and Susan Wood and Joan Campbell, Co-Leaders; aid the marching band in promoting enthusiasm throughout the football season. These high-steppers also perform with the band in spring parades. The girls are chosen for the Corps on the basis of their twirling and marching ability.

Mr. Lappin's Drama Council is an honorary society made up of students who have rendered extraordinary service in some phase of play production. In addition to hamming up meetings, its members regulate the One-Act Play Contest and present an annual full length play with members in vital roles both on and behind stage. Other Thespian activities include this year's production of "Pyramus and Thisbe." The Council's elders returning to service this year are Lorraine Lipani, Bruce Levine, and Kate Charbonneau.

THE BALD SOPRANO

In its premier performance at Central, the class of '67 released upon an unsuspecting audience a rendition of Eugene Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano," widely known as the epitome of the "Theater of the Absurd." Suffice it to say that this particular performance justified that appellation. The stars were Ernie Leo, Janet Kress, Steven Siegel, Phyllis Ianello, Joanne Tortorici, and Robert Orgel. Bruce Levine directed somewhat as Mrs. O'Leary's cow directed the Chicago fire. Our burnt offering to the One-Act Play gods went unappreciated.

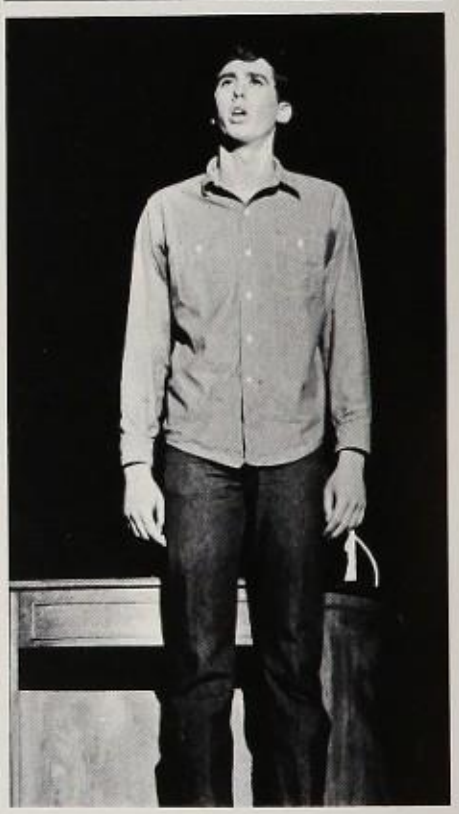
THE SHIRKERS

With spirits high despite the still-smarting sophomore fiasco, actors Pat Duspiva, Neil Sandler, and Carl Shapiro and the production staff, headed by director Bob Orgel, entered the field of battle once again, presenting "The Shirkers." This play of society's outcasts was greeted in a similar manner by an unsympathetic audience, and the over-confident seniors took all awards. Anyway, we know we were good.

THE VALIANT

Staggering from the wounds of our previous defeats, yet determined not to upset the awesome Central tradition which declares that the senior class must win something, we regrouped our forces and prepared for our last effort. And lo and behold, a smiling Providence beheld a production successful not only for the participants, but for audience and judges as well. Director Hilary Stemple guided Mitch Block and Sherry Levenson to Best Actor and Best Actress awards, a success well worth a three year wait. Supporting these two fine performers were Peter Conley, Leslie Moonves, Carl Shapiro, and Sheldon Rosenbaum, and a technical crew headed by Lee Erdman.

Sherry Levenson



Mitch Block

Ah, yes! "Light Up the Sky." Central's attempt to present Moss Hart's comedy, if not a total failure, was at least—well, maybe it was a total failure. In fact, the play did anything but fulfill the promise of its title. When, mercifully, after only two performances this biting satire itself bit the dust, Centralites could only come to the conclusion that to rebuild our drama department would take "a miracle worker."

LIGHT UP THE SKY

THE MIRACLE WORKER

All hopes for the rehabilitation of the dramatics program were pinned on this year's all-school production of William Gibson's The Miracle Worker, the dramatization of Helen Keller's agonizing education at the hands of Annie Sullivan. A cast led by Kate Charbonneau as Annie and Cheryl Beil as Helen began feverish preparations months in advance of the April performance. Although some doubts were evidenced as to the choice of such a difficult and sophisticated play for an audience accustomed to the musical, the performance was a pleasant surprise for skeptics and a delight to all concerned. In proving that serious drama can be successful at Central, the cast was responsible for a superlative and highly entertaining evening.

How about . . . $25?

This year's Football Team suffered heavily through casualties incurred early in the season, but managed to beat Calhoun. Mr. Mantrone, the head coach, was assisted by Mr. Rowen at the ends, Mr. Wiemer with the backs, and Mr. Fusco in the line.

Starting defensive line included: P. Catalano, S. Reuben, C. Rosachi, T. James, I. Kraftchen, P. Castagliola, E. Carlson, M. Ruvolo, T. Mormile, R. Reinertsen, and T. Chinculli.

Offense was centered around Paul Jesperson as quarterback, with J. Nappy as center, N. Rabinowitz and H. Cecily at ends, I. Kraftchen and B. Petersen as guards, C. Rosachi and R. Brienza as tackles, J. Dackerman as fullback, and A. Belding and T. Bradley as halfbacks.

Congratulations to Tommy James, who made All-League.

SOCCER

An unfortunate series of incidents crippled the offense of the 1966-1967 Soccer Team, and despite the terrific fight put up by the defense, the team lost many of its close games. However, the good spirit of the team, combined with the enthusiasm of the coach, Mr. D'Elia, made for an enjoyable season for both team and fans.

WEIGHT — LIFTING

Like Gymnastics Club, Weightlifting Club members are left to develop their own skills at their own speeds. Most are regular members, but many times athletes visit to work out in their own sport. Under the supervision of Mr. Rowen, the boys meet daily after school or during their gym classes.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics Club, started last year by Mr. Rowen, meets every day after school. Each member is free to work at his own speed with the purpose of self-improvement of specific skills on the parallel bars, flying rings, the horse, and the buck.

Mike,
I just come to draw you this part year at work and in the class room.

Crippled early in the season by many injuries, the Basketball Team managed to put up a good fight and provided fans with much suspense and excitement. One of our players, Bobby Moog, played well enough to earn an Honorable Mention in All-County.

I wish you luck and happiness in the years to come.
Your friend and math partner
Ira Workman

WRESTLING

On February 4th, the South Shore Division One Sectional Tournament was held. Paul Castagliola (123) and Stephen G. Yanoff (180) placed 3rd, and Phil Catalano (165) placed 4th. The next week, the County Tournament was held. In Nassau County, Paul was seeded 1st and Stephen 5th, although neither placed. Credit should be given, however, to all members of the team, for although most people base success on trophies and medals, only a wrestler can know and experience the personal success and satisfaction felt after a victorious match.

Hopes are high for a successful '68 season, because the majority of the team this year was juniors and sophomores. Also, the new assistant coach, Mr. Bishop, working along with Mr. Earl, will come up with new ideas for the next season.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

In the spring of each year, a group of boys, under the supervision of Mr. Mantrone, practices three times a week developing specific skills. This is the Physical Fitness Club. Besides working for a personal goal, the members work for the annual meet at King's Point Military Academy in May, where they are tested on push-ups, sit-ups, pull-ups, and squat thrusts.

Last year Central placed 17th out of 80 schools. Paul Castagliola and Al Odierno scored 1st and 2nd, helping their school achieve this goal.

SENIOR LEADERS

Leader's Club, headed by Miss Drayton and Miss Wagner, performs many services. The Leaders aid in gym classes and clubs by acting as officials, and also support drives to raise money for worthy causes. More important, they act as a symbol of leadership, not only in athletics, but in any school function.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Junior Varsity Squad is an energetic group of nine juniors led by Captain Dianne Webster. Despite the lack of attendance at J.V. games, this squad manages to evoke enough spirit to make 50 fans sound like 250. Both the Varsity Squad and Mrs. Furey, its conscientious sponsor, agree that in a short time this squad will rise to great heights.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Every day eighth period a small stampede can be heard coming from the girls' locker room. There is no doubt in anyone's mind of what that noise is. Of course, it is the Varsity Cheerleaders, all eagerly running to be first in line in the hopes of impressing Mrs. Furey and Captain Gail Cronin. (Actually, the first one up is allowed to leave first.)

Many hours of perseverance and practice reward this squad with acclaim from both superiors and peers. It is hard to carry on the tradition of Central High's past cheerleading squads, but most students agree that the 1966-1967 Varsity Cheering Squad has succeeded.

BASKETBALL

Girls' Basketball Team, headed by Miss Drayton, opened its season on January 19, 1967, with a smashing victory over Freeport. The score, 78-17 clearly shows why both coach and team felt confident about winning the League Championship on Feb. 23, 1967. They did.

Each year, in the spring, Miss Wagner and a small group of approximately 100 girls get together to play softball. They meet twice a week after school for practice during the first few weeks, and then engage in inter-school competition. Prospects were high for this year's team since last year's was composed primarily of juniors.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The single highest honor awarded by the faculty and administration to Central High School students is membership in the Central branch of the National Honor Society. Juniors deemed worthy are inducted in May, after selection on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship and service. Miss Caughran's philosophy, however, leaves no room for members to remain passive recipients of a magnified combination of the gold star and the good conduct medal. On the theory that privilege begets responsibility, members tutor students in various fields and provide additional services to the school, such as taking care of the subject honor rolls.

National Honor Society Officers:
B. Robbins, M. Young, L. Eng, J. Levine

In its first year of existence after last year's dramatic change from the Tri-Class Council, the new Student Council began operations with high hopes and some wild ideas for financial success (a communal airplane wash?). Mr. DeMita led the council in a lucrative drive in conjunction with the Peace Corps to erect a school overseas, the council sponsored various activities, and members agreed to Mr. Keller's inescapable hall aides. Though the council did not effect the expected coup and assume complete control of Central, for a first year effort we must judge it a distinct success.

With characteristic impudence, the upstart juniors made a contribution this year to Central's widespread obesity by nut and Easter egg sales, as well as producing a justly victorious One-Act Play. Under the able leadership of Miss McLellan and Mr. Boegner, and the officers, Becky Barrett, Danny Cass, Harvey Frank, and Laura Giordano, they even had the effrontery to present us with our prom, while financing their own next year.

SOPHOMORE COUNCIL

In its first year at Central, the infamously-numbered sophomore class, led by Mr. Cardone and Miss Camissa, and officers Nancy Hagey, Janice Lipani, Sharon Levine, and Linda Rodriguez, has already made a name for itself. Its sweatshirt sale may have been unprofitable, but it has won the sophomores a niche in the hearts of all red-blooded Centralites.

French Club Dinner

FRENCH CLUB AND HONOR SOCIETY

Password, telephone, bingo, and charades—all our typically American games—are glibly translated into grist for the French Club mill. The members even attempt French Christmas carols and drinking songs in three-part harmony. "Pour son opéra," however, Le Circle Francais holds a gala dinner in the middle of the year at which the female members display their culinary arts in true French fashion.

The French Honor Society is composed of students who show their interest in the French language and culture by their grades and by their membership in the French Club. Under the leadership of Miss Novick, the group meets to discuss French novels and poems and to take trips to places of interest for the French student.

German One-Act Play Contest

GERMAN CLUB AND HONOR SOCIETY

J. Campbell, D. Schultz, A. Berner, C. Tank, L.Eng

Der Deutsche Verein engages in a wide variety of German-oriented activities throughout the year ranging from playing a German version of "Keep Talking" to reading Goethe's "Faust." Miss Weih helps to promote an appreciation of German culture through trips by the membership to German movies and plays. Members of the club who maintain a 90 average in German are elected to the Honor Society.

ITALIAN CLUB AND HONOR SOCIETY

M. Collora, L. Giordano, P. Martino, S. Vitale, R. Rossi, C. Nappi

Mrs. DeGennaro's Circolo Italiano provides an opportunity for students interested in the culture of sunny Italy to sample more than pizza. Members engage in discussions, trips, dangerous though enjoyable dinners, and other activities pertaining to Italian life. Surviving members with at least a 90 average may be accepted by the Honor Society.

LATIN CLUB AND HONOR SOCIETY

Miss Munro, K. Brennan, A. Baiardi, P. Reilly, S. Stein, P. Zuckerwise, I. Meltzer

Eligibility for Latin Honor Society is based on maintenance of a 90 average in Latin I and regular attendance at Latin Club. The purpose of the organization is to provoke more interest in areas concerning the Latin language.

Latin Club is dedicated to proving that "The grandeur that was Rome" still lives today. Miss Munro and her enthusiastic cohorts publish a Latin newspaper, INTERNOS, visit places of classical interest, celebrate Saturnalia with the crowning of a king and queen, and close the year with the annual picusticus.

Comrade Feigenbaum's Russian Club, Central's contribution to the spirit of co-existence, operates nevertheless as one of the most active of the school's clubs. Members have been known to soak up knowledge concerning life in the U.S.S.R. by such diverse means as a formal excursion to see "Dr. Zhivago" and a visit by a representative of the Soviet mission—Comrade Kuzmin's enthusiastically received speech-in.

The Russian Honor Society selects its members from the countless applicants who have compiled adequate grades in the language and who are active participants in Russian Club. Applicants must also be contemplating membership in the Party.

SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY

" ¿Hablas español?" Well, even if you don't, but nevertheless possess a ninety average for two consecutive years in the language, you, "mi amigo," are eligible for membership in our Capitulo Simon Bolivar de la Sociedad Honoria Hispanica—roughly translated, the Spanish Honor Society. Activities include trips to Spanish restaurants and museums in search of Spanish culture, as well as the publication of a magazine, headed this year by Maxine Phillips. Miss Keller, "una mujer muy culta," is the sponsor. Ask her for a translation.

SPANISH CLUB

Going on the theory that there is more to the study of a foreign language than syntax or the subjunctive, Mr. Kramer's Spanish Club meets once a week to discuss and attempt to comprehend the various aspects of life in Spanish-speaking countries, with topics ranging from U.S. influence in Latin America to the art of bull-fighting. Other activities include trips to places of interest and special performances of native songs and dances.

Dear Mike
Lots of luck in your future.

good times together.
Be good!

The single male counterpart to the three female service clubs, Mr. D'Elia's Rho Delta Sigma Hi-Y also devotes a good deal of time to community and school service, and the rest to social outings and activities for the enjoyment of its members. It's an efficient and admirable method for combining worthwhile business with worthwhile pleasure.

SERVICE CLUB

Supervised by Miss Griffith and Miss Allen, the Service Club organizes a vast pool of volunteers for service at school functions, especially ushering at concerts and plays.

CULTURE

Junior and senior members of Wild Bill Troyan's Culture Club rampaged this year as usual through the jungles of American culture. Activities included the infamous Christmas trip to Washington (?) and an equally dubious evening with "Hogan's Goat." The turnout for informal intellectual jam sessions was considerably less enthusiastic than for the social events, probably due to the fact that no one wants to debate dissent, foreign policy, and adolescent rebellion with such an arch hater of youth. (It is a well-known psychological fact that people who desire something intensely often act as if they dislike it.)

The philosophy and problems of the law were planned subjects of inquiry this year for Mr. Falco's Jurisprudence Club. Constitutional issues were not a part, however, of the trip to a Manhattan night court, where it was observed that "the law in action", contrary to Perry Mason, involved the jailing, or occasionally the not jailing by many bored policemen of many stupefied drunks and a few interesting deviates. Mr. Falco's oratory did, however, produce a sizeable number of prospective attorneys from the group (in self-defense), and the trip to the Mock U.N. last spring was highly successful.

DISCUSSION CLUB

Once again this year, Miss Amberman's Discussion Club provided the official answer to the bull session—a time and place for informal expression on topics ranging from Central's system of grading to the startlingly original question of the Vietnamese war. Attempts at controversy ended as usual with no conclusions drawn and a few tempers shortened.

THEATRE DISCUSSION CLUB

Returned from the dead, Miss Amberman's Opera Guild is once more providing an official vehicle for appreciation and discussion of quality vocalists. Opera enthusiasts climaxed an enjoyable year of listening and learning with a highly successful outing to the Metropolitan Opera.

Under the new and able coaching of Mr. Bishop, the Debate Team is doing its best to live up to the tradition established by past teams. Although this year did not see another successful trip to the state championships in Albany, novice members performed well in filling the shoes of absent veterans in categories ranging from formal debate and original oratory to dramatic interpretation and extemporaneous speaking. After lugging home the marble-brass rewards of their success, the debators are now prepared to follow the example of their predecessors by using their new skills to make life hell for teachers.

DECA

Central's branch of the Distributive Education Club of America strives for the union of various business-oriented activities—including courses in retailing and outside jobs—in order to prepare members to take their places as the future business leaders of America (His kids, says Mr. Zimmering, not those secretaries of F.B.L.A., will be the J. Paul Gettys of the future). This attitude has certainly paid off; in addition to having several Nassau winners in marketing contests, the club has balanced a hefty budget which enables it to sponsor various picnics and to swing a lot of weight around Central.

MATHLETES

Central's entry in Nassau's mathematical lists is Miss Caughran's Math Club, an honorary organization composed, oddly enough, of some of Central's best math minds. Supported by the Powers That Be, they sally forth after school into mortal combat, proclaiming their motto, "Divide and conquer!" On battle fields strewn with logs, roots, and many other factors, these warriors have functioned so well that in past years the entire school has derived great pleasure from their successes.

Shorthand students desiring to improve their skill are given the chance to do so by Mrs. Tervo in the Gregg Club. Certificates and pins are awarded to high achievers.

The National Business Honor Society, advised by Miss Kass, gives well-deserved recognition to students with good general grades who do superior work in business courses.

The Business Club is a multi-faceted organization engaged in a wide variety of projects, including tutoring needy students, providing a faculty typing service, fund-raising, publishing a departmental newspaper, and generally soaking up the lore of the business world. Miss Jacobson also teaches the art of dictation to the interested and arranges for club social activities.

LIBRARY CLUB

Students interested in donating their services to the school during study hall periods (an easily understood interest), while learning first-hand the fundamentals of running a library, are given the opportunity to do so as Library Aides. Under the guidance of Mr. Young and Mrs. Jonas, these altruistic souls have miraculous talents for finding, stacking, filing, and checking out books and have even been known to alphabetize correctly for hours on end.

Ron Mertz, Debbie Zubow, and Paulanne Kohn go Brazilian.

The noises emanating from the third floor several afternoons a month (after school) are neither Mr. Falco giving a rendition of "Old Man River" nor Mr. Keller at his organ; they are the products of Mr. Herrmann's rowdy folksingers, carriers of the Word. The guitars, banjos, harmonicas, voices, and Bronx cheers of purist and folk-rock devotees alike join in musical therapy sessions and auditions, leading up to the year's climax, the grand Hootenanny.

Dear Mike -
Best of luck - all your dreams the future. Don't forget the past behind you with good old Bold Segal.
Annie Bertino

Dear Mike
The future is only what you make of it. But what ever you make of it is all Yours
The Best of on

Mr. Mike
Mike I want a good time up tonight under all circumstances and over.
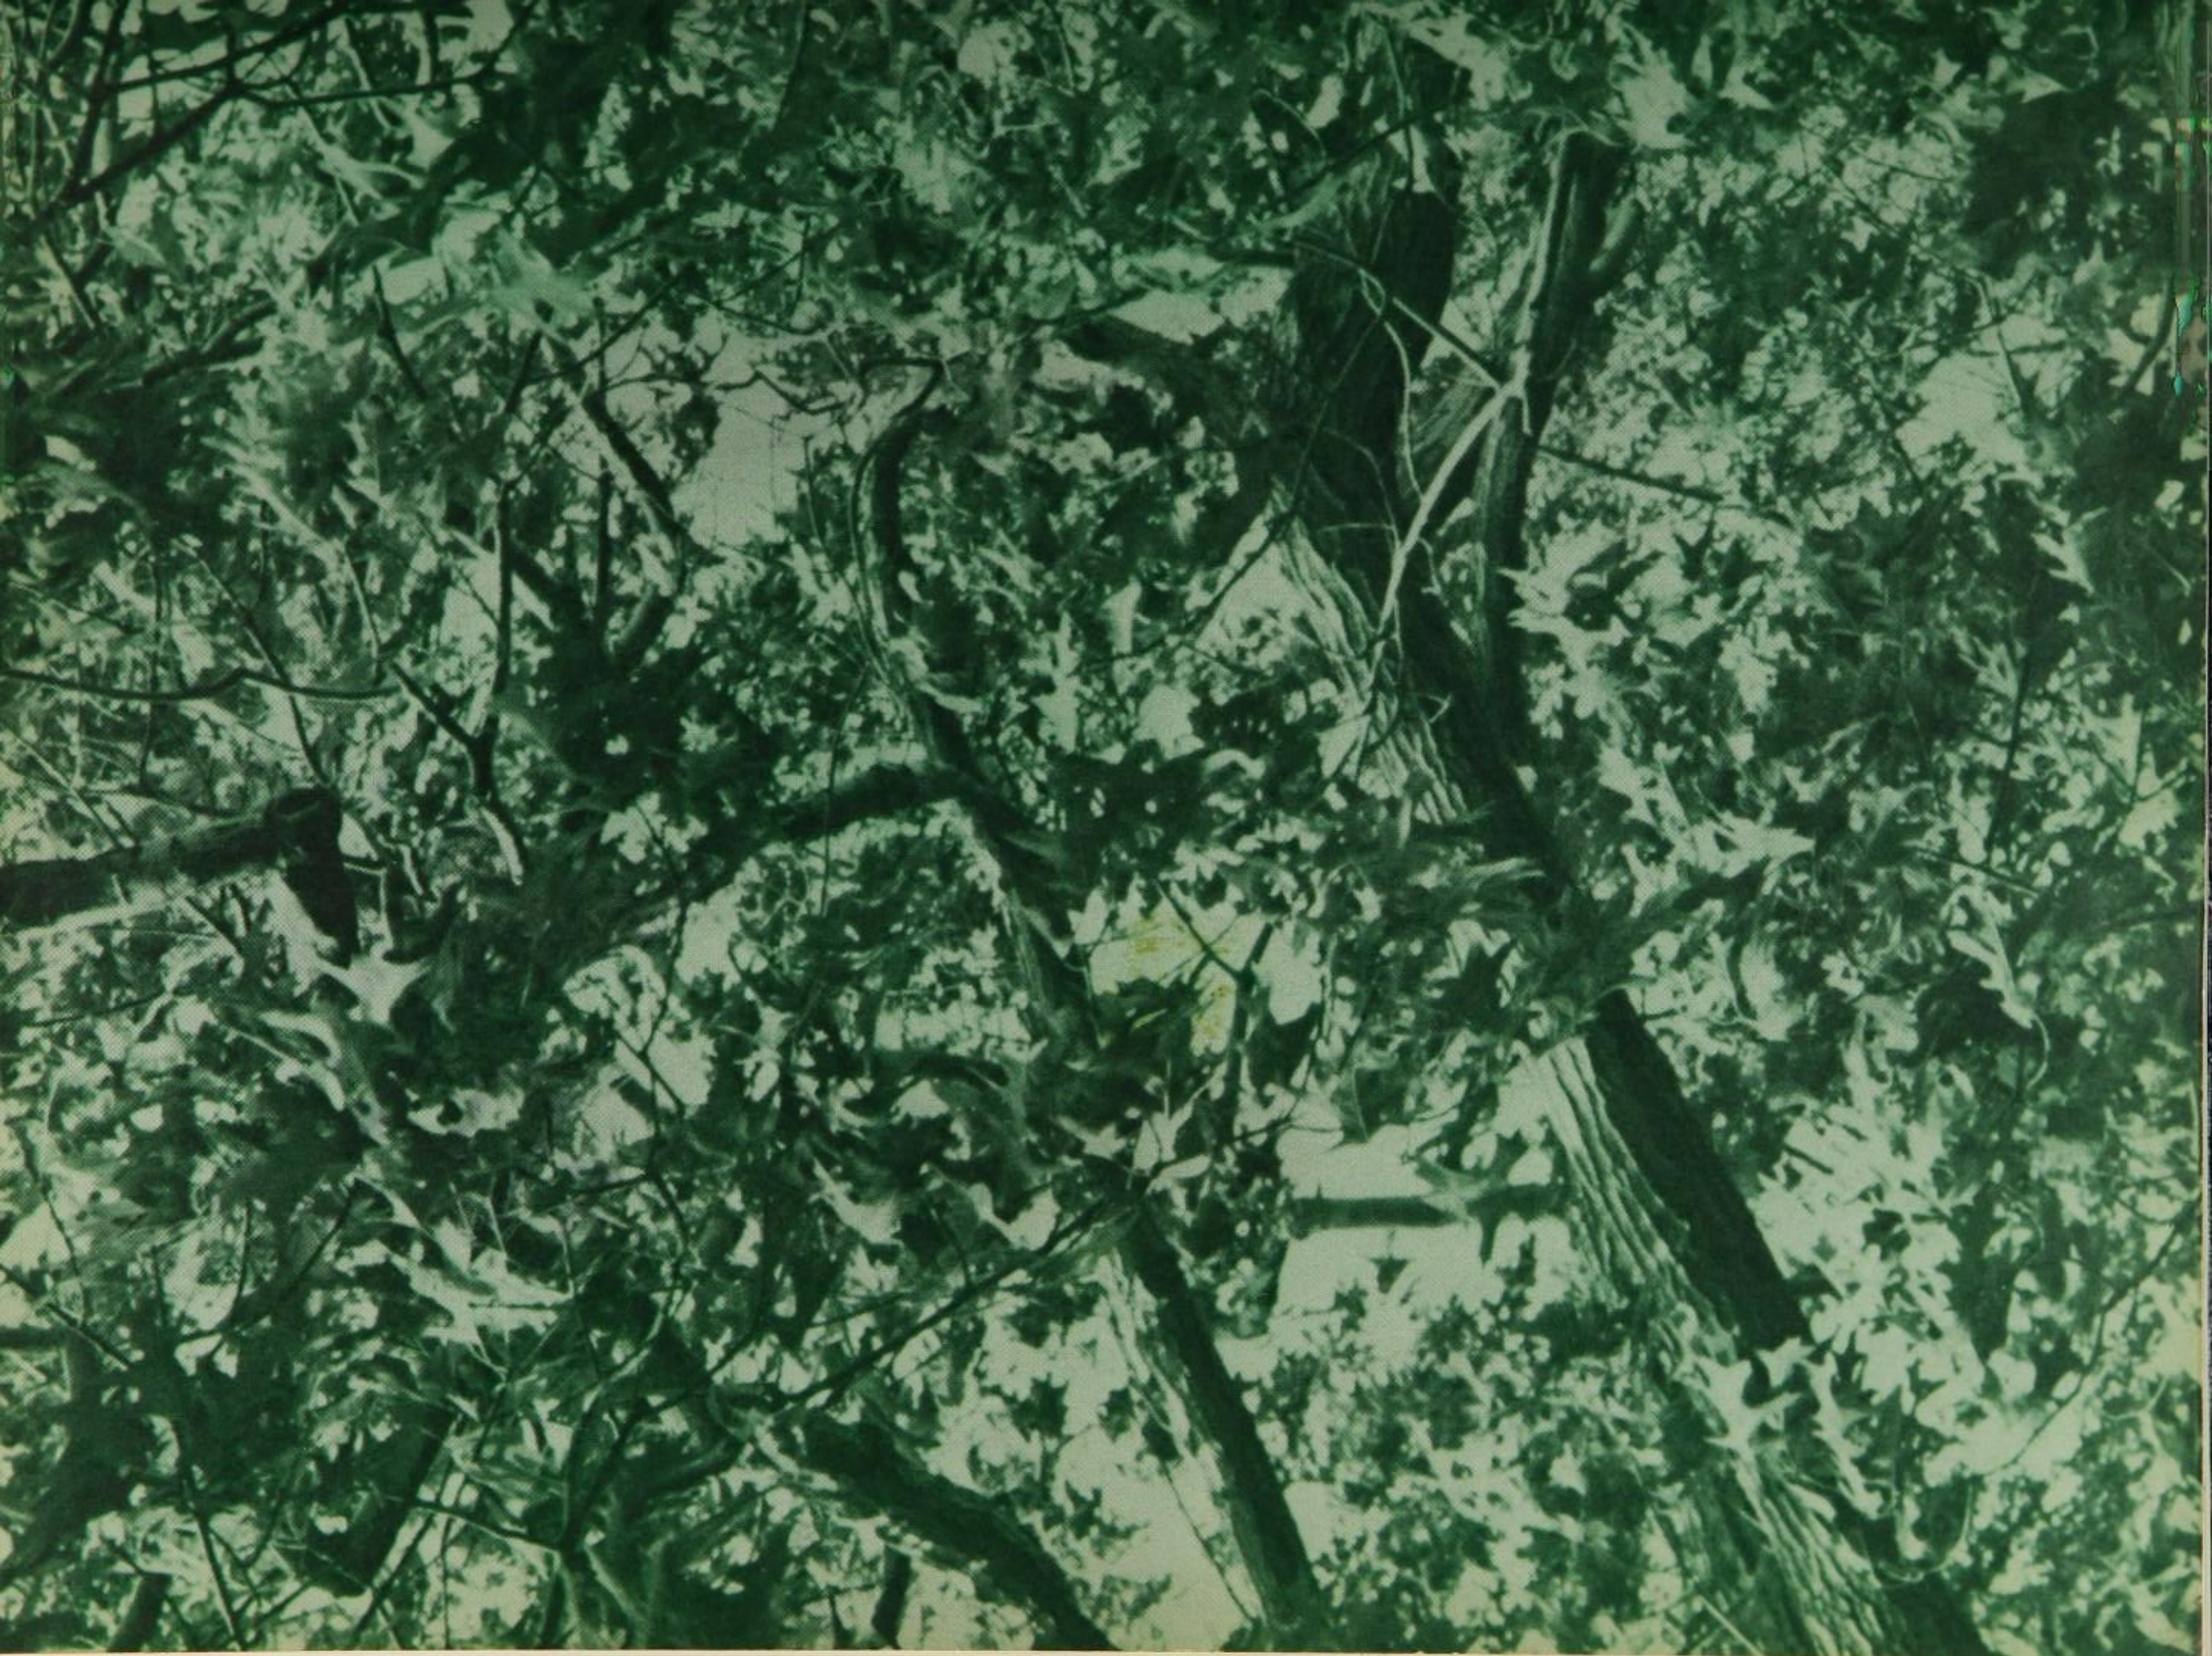
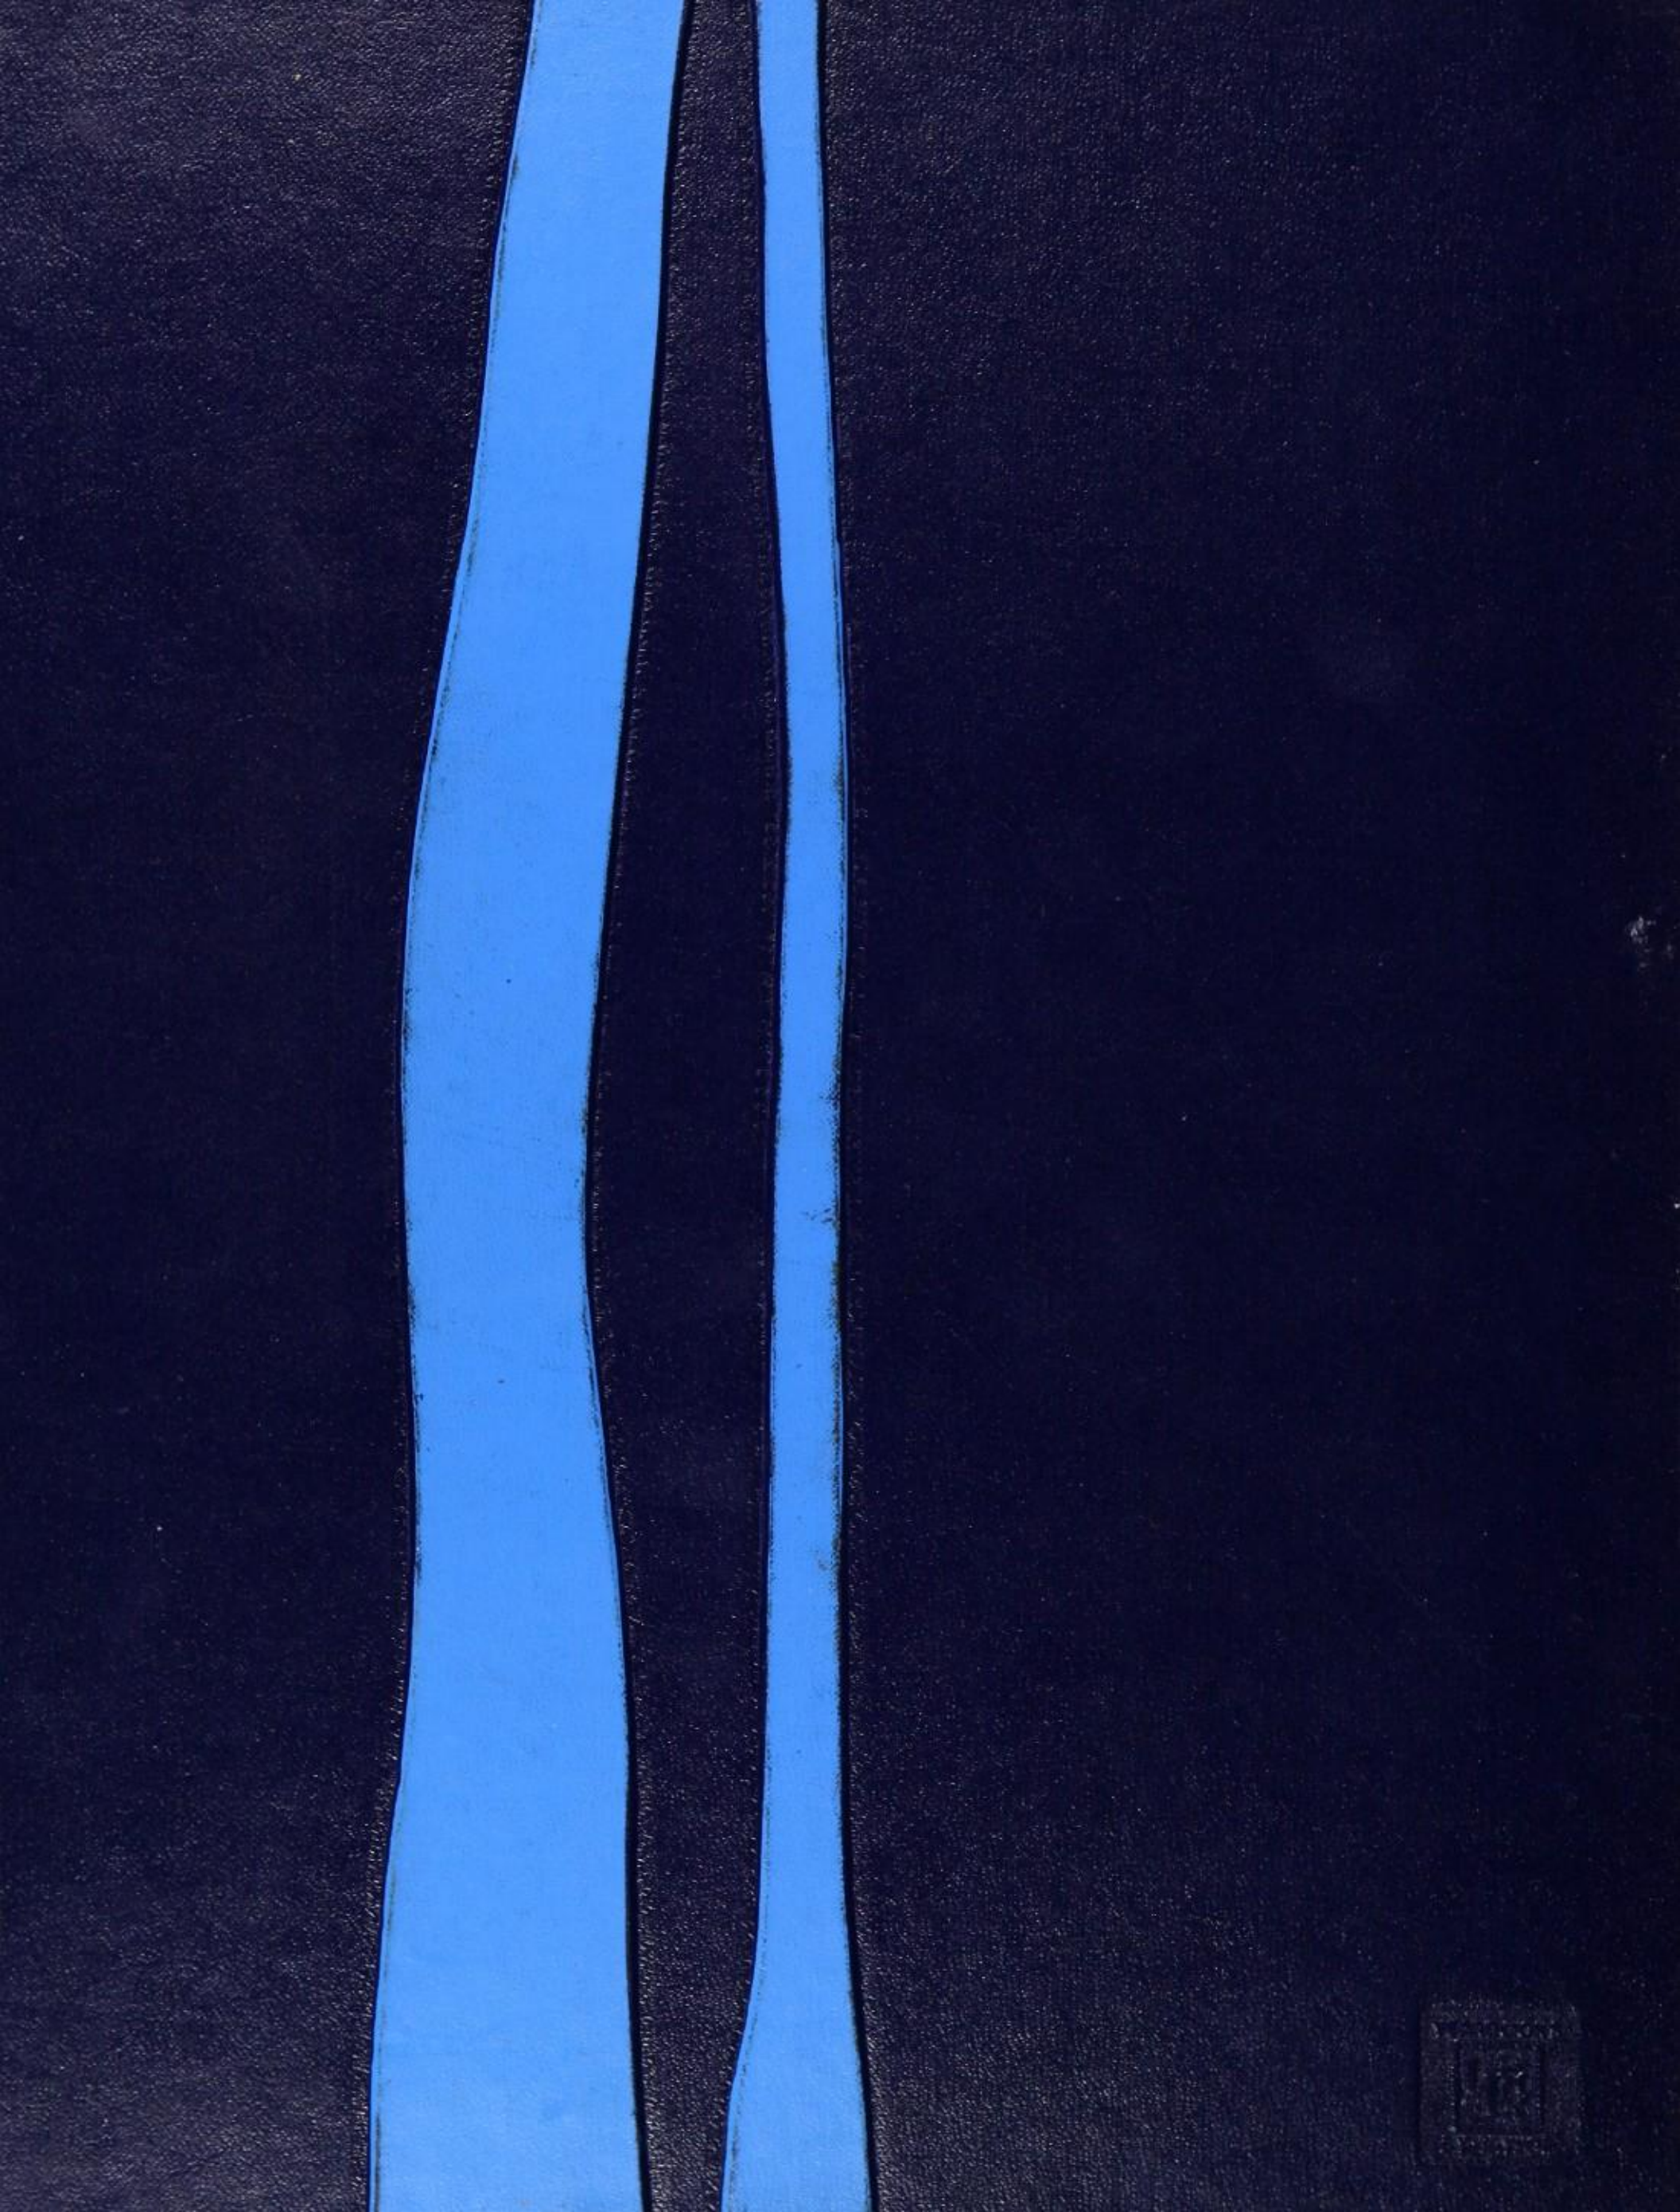
Mr. P.




Dear Mike,
It's been so nice knowing you - always greeting by your happy smiling face. Latin club will miss you next year its only non-Latin student member. Good luck and may you always enjoy everything in life.
Love
Linda G.
